

Those who can, do;
Those who think others can do, too, Teach

Thank you for your interest in the American Association of Riding Schools®. Please respond to the following questions; and then include your own comments. Thanks.

Mark the following questions with a yes or no.

Yes	No
		Are you a riding instructor now?
		Are you certified or degreed by a post-secondary equine studies or certification program?
		Do you currently own your own riding lesson business?
		Do you or does your family own your own stable real estate?
		If not, do you have managerial control over the facility you occupy?
		Do you have a strong personal interest in serving new-horse-owning and non-horse-owning beginners?
		Do you offer both eastern and western instruction (any of the various styles), at least at the novice level?
		Do you provide a non-breed-biased introduction to the sport and hobby of horses, even though you may have a personal favorite?

Check which of the following would be a benefit for you. Check all that apply, and add more if you want.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Assistance with advertising that attracts new- and non-horse-owning novices
<input type="checkbox"/>	Assistance with basic class plans accompanied by reward ribbons and certificates
<input type="checkbox"/>	Access to fun and educational handout for your students
<input type="checkbox"/>	Access to a 'best practices guide' for novice level riding instructors
<input type="checkbox"/>	Assistance with basic business bookkeeping (forms, lesson records, income/expense, etc)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Assistance with year-end income tax preparation
<input type="checkbox"/>	Assistance with employee hiring/supervising/firing, and related payroll and insurance issues
<input type="checkbox"/>	Other:

Please include anything else you would like to tell us:

Name
E-Mail
Web URL
Telephones
Stable Name
Street Address
City, State, Zip

~ To Teach is to be Twice Taught ~